Website Upgraded	Bartec's tool management website updated and refreshed	✓

Improvements to Bartec's Tool Management site are coming! As we continually seek to improve, the first thing customers will notice in the change is an all new Landing Page containing information about the latest tool updates. From there, the site will remain mostly similar to what customers have been used to using, with the other big changes coming to how our support teams can help manage your account information on the back end.
